Designed For Natural Living

Located in Toronto's downtown entertainment area and built in 2017, Noir at 87 Peter Street is situated near Peter Street and Adelaide Street West. The high-rise condo is located in the King West neighborhood, home to some of Toronto's most vibrant dining experiences and is within walking distance to the Financial District.

The building is steps away from anything and everything. TTC streetcars run along Queen and King Street in an unending stream. St. Andrew's subway station is a few blocks away, and Union Station, Toronto's grand central commuter hub.

It's called the Entertainment District for a reason. There is an array of Broadway-style productions at the Royal Alexandra and Princess of Wales theatres, the orchestra at Roy Thomson Hall, opera and ballet at the Four Seasons Centre for the Performing Arts, and the list of events goes on and on. If you are a sports enthusiast, the Rogers Centre, Scotiabank Arena, BMO Field, and Ricoh Coliseum are a short distance away.

Featuring one and two bedroom fully furnished executive suites, the building is equipped with various amenities, including state-of-the-art fitness and weight areas, a yoga studio, party room, theatre room, a jacuzzi, and much more.
