Designed For Natural Living

Richards Living, located in the Yaletown neighbourhood, is an 18 storey condo built in 2011 and features one and two bedroom executive fully furnished suites. You will find Richards Living near Seymour Street and Davie Street in the central Vancouver area.

Yaletown provides the serenity of an oceanfront seawall, along with the largest selection of trendy patios and award-winning boutiques. As a great escape within the big city, Yaletown offers an opportunity to explore acclaimed restaurants and eclectic shops set along heritage brick walkways with free area WiFi. Yaletown is located near False Creek, which was previously an industrial district. Two cobblestoned streets, Hamilton and Mainland, pave the way for trendy boutiques, independent retailers, yoga studios, and offices, most of which are situated behind original exposed brick exteriors.

The building offers a host of fabulous amenities that guests can enjoy to enhance their lifestyle including, a rooftop patio with spectacular views of the city. Workout enthusiasts can take advantage of the fully-equipped fitness centre, then relax and wind down with a sauna.
