Hamilton is nestled on the shores of Lake Ontario, between Toronto and Niagara Falls. The city is known for its picturesque harbours, vibrant shopping districts, and some of the best dining options in the Greater Toronto Area.

Hamilton is now one of Canada's leading industrial centres. It's iron and steel industry has grown to become Canada's largest, accounting for a major part of the national steel output. Health care, local government, and education are also important to the economy. The city is also a financial hub and the centre of an extensive fruit-growing district; it is the site of one of Canada's largest open-air markets.

Conveniently located 50km West of downtown Toronto, with easy highway access. Hamilton is surrounded by numerous parks, biking and walking trails, dog parks, playgrounds, skateboard parks, splash pads, sports fields, tennis courts, and much more.
